The essence of our passion for the harp

Light and easy to play, with clean, pure lines, the Atlantide gives free rein to the joys of musical interpretation and virtuosity. Its spectacular acoustic performance and beautiful appearance have made it a benchmark among professional harps, treasured by numerous artists, conservatoires and renowned international orchestras.

Rare wood finishes

The Atlantide Prestige is now available in rare, fine woods.

Tropical rosewood, Bubinga and Zingana from the Indies, Africa and South America offer a staggering range of colour, veining and design, and transform our Atlantide in a unique objet d'art of unparalleled beauty. Like all our wood, they are selected from sustainable forests, with strict regard for environmental conservation.
